

THE UNIVERSITY OF MOUNT UNION OFFERS SCHOLARSHIPS TO INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The International Award is given automatically to non-native English speaking applicants who qualify based on a review of a student's English language proficiency level at the time of acceptance. To qualify for the International Award, applicants must be admitted as an F-1 degree seeking student and hold a valid I-20 form which will be issued by Mount Union and must not have completed their entire secondary school education in an English curriculum. The award amounts are the following:

- 45-60 iBT (PB TOEFL scores between 450 and 497) or an IELTS score of 4.5 - $7,500 award
- 61 iBT (PB TOEFL scores at 500 and above) or an IELTS score of 5.0 and above - $10,000 award

In addition, we also offer need based financial aid and if an international student qualifies as according to the College Board's International Student Financial Aid Application it could mean an additional $6,000 for a total max of $16,000. Our total cost for 2010-2022 for tuition, fees, room and meals is $32,584 so on average we can help with about 50% of the total cost.

About Mount Union-The University of Mount Union offers a liberal arts education and affirms the importance of reason, open inquiry, and individual worth. Mount Union's mission is to prepare students for meaningful work, fulfilling lives, and responsible citizenship. Mount Union was founded in 1846 by Orville Nelson Hartshorn as a place where men and women could be educated with equal opportunity, science would parallel the humanities and there would be no distinction due to race, color or sex.

Mount Union is in Alliance, Ohio (population 25,000). The College is located 70 miles from Cleveland and 80 miles from Pittsburgh.

Mount Union enrolls 2,200 undergraduates; approximately 50 percent women and 50 percent men, representing more than 28 states and 18 countries.

For more information on international admission, contact the Center for Global Education at: intlads@muc.edu
Tel. (330) 823-3296 or fax at (330) 829-8204.
Mount Union www.mountunion.edu

www.youtube.com/user/mountunioncollege

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Application Deadline: June 1, 2010

The University of Pittsburgh School of Arts and Sciences Announces a New Postdoctoral Fellowship Program for 2011

For the first time, the University of Pittsburgh School of Arts and Sciences is offering up to eight postdoctoral fellowships in the humanities and social sciences to begin in January 2011. These inaugural fellowships are designed to attract excellent scholars from outside the University of Pittsburgh and to offer junior scholars the time, space, and financial support necessary to produce significant scholarship early in their careers.

The Arts and Sciences Postdoctoral Fellowships are for one year and are renewable for an additional year. Fellows will teach two courses per year, complete scholarly work, and participate in the academic and intellectual community of the School of Arts and Sciences and the department or program with which they are affiliated. The fellowship offers junior scholars the time, space, and financial support necessary to produce significant scholarship early in their careers. The annual stipend will be $45,000. Fellows will receive an annual research fund of $3,500 and a one-time reimbursement of up to $1,500 for moving expenses.

Eligibility:

We invite applications from qualified candidates in the humanities and social sciences who have received the PhD from outside of the University of Pittsburgh between December 1, 2007 and November 30, 2010. Applicants who do not have the PhD in hand at the time of application must provide a letter from the Department Chair or the Advisor stating that the PhD degree will be conferred before the term of the fellowship begins.

Guidelines:

Postdoctoral education is an important facet of research and scholarship at the University of Pittsburgh, and the University has developed a comprehensive set of guidelines for postdoctoral fellows and the faculty, departments, and programs who work with them.

Application Requirements and Procedure

Applicants should submit the following materials:

1. An application form (available at www.as.pitt.edu/postdoc)
2. Curriculum vitae
3. Detailed statement of current research interests (1,000 words) that clearly outlines the goals of the research you will undertake during the term of the fellowship.
4. One writing sample no longer than 20 pages.
5. A copy of the Dissertation Table of Contents
6. A two-page statement of teaching interests and one or two course proposals (subject area, brief syllabus, proposed methods) for a 15-week course directed towards advanced undergraduates or graduate students.
7. Three letters of recommendation. (NOTE: Letter writers should e-mail their recommendations directly to postdoc@as.pitt.edu , using the applicant's name and the word, "Postdoc Recommendation" in the e-mail subject line

Application Deadline and Notification of Awards

All application materials-including letters of recommendation- must be submitted electronically before June 1, 2010. Only fully completed formal applications will be considered. It is your responsibility to ensure that all documentation is complete and that referees submit their letters of recommendation to postdoc@as.pitt.edu by the closing date. Awards will be announced in July 2010.

The University of Pittsburgh is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer and educator. Women, minorities, and international candidates are especially encouraged to apply.

For more information, contact:
Ms. Runette Brown
University of Pittsburgh
Arts and Sciences Graduate Studies Office
5401 Sennott Square
Pittsburgh, PA 15260
Tel: 412-624-3939
Fax: 412-624-6855
E-mail: postdoc@as.pitt.edu

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP IN INFORMATION POLICY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN MILWAUKEE

Application Deadline: April 30, 2010

The School of Information Studies at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee is accepting applications for a Postdoctoral Fellowship in Information Policy for 2010-2011. The information policy fellowship is designed recent PhDs who are interested in social, ethical, economic, legal, and technical aspects of information and information technologies with a focus on information policy and information ethics. Specifically, we are seeking candidates with research and teaching interests in the philosophy of information, critical/cultural studies of information, and/or advanced research methods.

Along with continuing their own research agenda, the fellow will work closely with the Center for Information Policy Research and affiliated faculty, assist in coordination of related events, work with current PhD students, and participate in the academic and intellectual community of the School. The fellow will be expected to teach one class in the fall and spring semesters. The stipend for the fellowship will be $38,000 for a 12-month appointment beginning in August 2010, with a $2,000 research and travel stipend. Fellows are eligible for benefits. Stipend for this position may be subject to future UW System furlough policies.

Application Information:

Applicants must be scholars who are not yet tenured and who are no more than 3 years past receiving their PhD. Applicants must hold a PhD in a information studies or related discipline. Applicants who do not yet hold a PhD but expect to have it by August, 2010 will be asked to provide a letter from their home institution corroborating the degree award schedule. Verification of completion of degree will be required before the start date.

Application packages must include: letter explaining research agenda, teaching interests, and appropriateness for the fellowship, curriculum vitae, writing sample, and 3 references.

Send all application materials electronically to:
Dr. Elizabeth Buchanan at eliz1679@uwm.edu

Deadline for application is April 30, 2010.
Decisions to be made by May 31 2010.

For more information, please contact Dr. Elizabeth Buchanan at eliz1679@uwm.edu and visit us at www4.uwm.edu/sois and www4.uwm.edu/cipr.
www4.uwm.edu/cipr/news/uw-milwaukee-seeking-postdoctoral-fellow-in-information-policy.cfm

I. News You Can Use

MARYVILLE UNIVERSITY OF ST. LOUIS ANNOUNCES NEW MASTER'S PROGRAMS AND MBA CONCENTRATIONS

Maryville University of St. Louis, fulfilling its mission to "provide selective and cutting edge programs in the Arts and Sciences, Health Professions, Education and Business", is happy to announce two new MBA concentrations, two new Master programs and one new Doctoral program, beginning Fall 2010.

The two new MBA concentrations are Sport and Entertainment Management, and Process and Project Management.

The two new Master programs are Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership and Master of Arts in Strategic Communication and Leadership.

The new doctoral program is the Doctorate of Nursing Practice.

To learn more about the Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership, please use this link:
www.maryville.edu/academics-as-MA-Organizational-Leadership%20.htm

To learn more about the Master of Arts in Strategic Communication and Leadership, please visit:
www.maryville.edu/academics-as-communications-ma-strategic-communication.htm

To learn more about the Doctorate of Nursing Practice, please visit:
www.maryville.edu/academics-hp-nursing-dnp.htm

For more information about these two concentrations, please visit:
www.maryville.edu/news7047.htm

For further inquires or questions, please contact the Office of International Admissions at internationaladmissions@maryville.edu,

(314) 529-6857 or 800-627-9855

NORTH HENNEPIN COMMUNITY COLLEGE STILL ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR FALL 2010

There is still time to study at North Hennepin CC (USA) for Fall semester 2010!

The International Application deadlines are: May 1 for new students; & July 1 for transfer F-1 students.

Learn more at: www.nhcc.edu/main/BecomeAStudent/ApplyForAdmission/international.aspx

Scott Johnson
International Student Advisor
sjohnson@nhcc.edu

May 4, 2010

FRESHMEN AND TRANSFER SCHOLARSHIPS AT FELICIAN COLLEGE

Felician College has restructured its undergraduate scholarship awards to better accommodate students during these difficult economic times. Our awards are very generous:

- Freshmen scholarships: from $9,000 to full tuition, based on either high school GPA or SAT score
- Transfer scholarships: from $8,000 to $16,500, based on cumulative GPA from any college or university in the world the student transfers from

All scholarships are renewable for up to four years of study, and unlike our previous scholarships, students are not required to take the SAT or ACT in order to receive the award. A combination of SAT/ACT score and high school GPA is only required for students who wish to receive a full tuition scholarship. It's a great opportunity for students to realize their dreams of studying in the United States without breaking the bank!

For more information about these scholarships or program offerings, please contact:

M'Elise Young
Office of International Programs
Felician College
Website: <http://www.felician.edu/>
Email: oip@felician.edu
Phone: +1-201-559-6048

Felician College Facebook Pages

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS AT LAKE FOREST COLLEGE

Every well-qualified international student offered admission is guaranteed to receive a Global Enrichment Scholarship award of $15,000 per year ($60,000 over four years).

Forester Scholarships, ranging from $3000 to $8000, recognize a dedication to academics, the arts, sciences and community. Scholarship awards will be prioritized for those students who submit their Forester Scholarship application with their application for admissions. Majoring in a particular area is not a requirement of any scholarship.

Lake Forest College is one of the nation's most innovative liberal arts colleges. In addition to in the humanities, social and natural sciences, the College features inventive programs of study in communications, business, Asian Studies, Islamic World Studies, and still other contemporary areas. Abundant internship and research opportunities, close interaction with highly skilled professors, and practical programs in nearby Chicago set Lake Forest College apart.

For more information: <http://www.lakeforest.edu/admissions/international/>

Lake Forest College's Channel

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOW IN MEDIA STUDIES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

The Department of Media, Film, and Journalism Studies in the Divisions of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences at the University of Denver invites applications for a lecturer-postdoctoral fellow beginning Fall 2010 with a three-year contract, renewable annually. This position is designed for individuals who have recently completed their Ph.D. with the opportunity to participate in career development workshops and our division-wide faculty mentoring program. Eligible candidates will have received a Ph.D. no earlier than May 2007.

Preferred qualifications include demonstrated expertise in international, global, and/or multicultural communication and/or media and the ability to teach research methods. The department has foci in film, new media, journalism, strategic communication, politics, law and ethics, and health communication.

Applications review will begin after May 15, 2010.

For more information: <http://www.du.edu/ahss/schools/mfjs/>

Online application: <https://www.dujobs.org>

NEW MBA CONCENTRATIONS AND GRADUATE PROGRAMS AT MARYVILLE UNIVERSITY

Maryville University of St. Louis announced two new MBA concentrations in the John E. Simon School of Business:

- Sport and Entertainment Management
- Project and Process Management

Also announced were two new Master's Programs and a new Doctoral Program:

- Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership
- Master of Arts program in Strategic Communication and Leadership
- Doctor of Nursing Practice

Founded in 1872, Maryville University is a four-year, private university located in west St. Louis County. Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of America's Best Colleges in the Masters-Midwest category, Maryville University students may choose from 50 academic programs, including degrees at the bachelor's, masters and doctoral levels. Among recent graduates, 82 percent are employed or attending graduate school. More than 16,000 Maryville alumni work and live in the St. Louis region.

For more information: <http://www.maryville.edu/admissions-international.htm>

<http://www.facebook.com/MaryvilleUniversity>

The Ville on the Hill's Channel

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS, VISITING SCHOLARS, THE INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED STUDY, PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

The Institute for Advanced Study is an independent private institution founded in 1930 to create a community of scholars focused on intellectual inquiry, free from teaching and other university obligations. Each year scholars from around the world apply to come to the Institute to pursue their own research.

Each year up to twenty visiting scholars are offered a membership for a set period and a stipend. Members receive access to the extensive resources of the Institute, including offices, access to libraries, subsidized restaurant and housing facilities, and some secretarial services. A completed doctorate or equivalent is required by the application deadline, and memberships are awarded at both the junior and senior levels.

The theme for 2011-2012 is Moralities. Application deadline is November 1, 2010. Applications must be submitted online: www.sss.ias.edu/applications

For more information: <http://www.sss.ias.edu/>